Solicitor Will Collect Blairmore's Tax Arrears

At the regular meeting of the Blairmore town council, held last night, Mayor Beebe and Councillors Ross, Dutil, Lagace, McVey, and Secretary Wright were in attendance.

The minutes of previous meeting were approved as read, and one communication was received.

The following accounts were passed for payment, subject to approval by various committees: Blairmore Hardware Co., for electrical supplies, $9.75; Blairmore Hardware Co., meter rentals for month of March $15.25; Union Bank of Canada, on debenture redemption, $1000.00; J. McLean, for street work done in 1917, $7.00; Northern Electric Co., $178.95.

Councillor Dutil gave notice that at the next regular meeting of the council he would introduce "vagrancy" and "health and sanitation" by-laws.

The by-law to amend sections 30 and 33 of License By-Law No. 4, received its second and third final readings and finally passed.

The amendments made affect the opera house and restaurants, requiring license of $50 per annum from each instead of $15 as formerly.

Account of the West Canadian Minerals Co. for undercharge on light account from June to December last, amounting to $717.54, was recommended for payment by the chairman of the light committee, but acting on the suggestion of the mayor, the account was laid over until next meeting for further consideration.

A communication was also received from the electrical inspector, stating that he expected to be in Blairmore sometime in May.

On motion by Johnston-McVey, the collection of tax arrears was left with Mr. J. E. Gillis.

The management of the opera house asked permission to erect a pole line through the back alleys crossing blocks one and two Plan 3319-I. Permission was on motion granted.

The town of Vermilion has been swept by fire and damage to the extent of about half a million dollars was done.

Prize of $50 Offered For The Best Garden

The recently inaugurated Horticultural Club at Bellevue is commanding considerable attention from the people of the town and the adjoining district, and there is talk that similar organizations are to be set on foot in some of the neighboring towns. It is a great pity that in a district of gardens, etc., will readily enable where so much land is lying idle you to this position. We and dormant and where climatic and other conditions are so favorable for horticulture and agriculture that so little interest is taken in that line, especially now when a little effort may count much towards the production of stuffs that tend toward the successful termination of the war.

The following communications should be of very great interest to the people of The Pass, and should enthuse them to co-operate with the new organization at Bellevue in the production of vegetables and the advancement of horticulture.

The Bellevue Horticultural Club, through its secretary, Mr. George McLean, writes Mr. J. Charbonneau, manager of the West Canadian Collieries as follows:

"Bellevue, Alberta,
April 3rd, 1918.
J. Charbonneau, Esq.,
Dear Sir:

We beg to inform you that the above Society has recently been formed in Bellevue with the object of promoting more interest in the matter of horticulture, and also to increase the production of vegetables, etc., locally.

Coming To Coleman Opera House

William Fox's special production, "The Tale of Two Cities," by Charles Dickens, in seven parts, is coming to the Coleman Opera house on Saturday and Monday, April 20th and 22nd.

Charles Dickens is one author who could sit cheerfully throughout his life, for he had not only his own characters to culminate, but the other recommendations made would be considered when the Canadian ministers are in London this summer, in view of his announcement, Sir Robert suggested that Mr. Nickle should withdraw his motion which asked that his majesty be presented with an address praying that hereafter no hereditary titles be conferred in Canada.

Sir Robert expressed the belief that it would be opposed to the whole system of titles. He said that to explain why he had accepted a title would be going into a matter of history, but if he did, it could be done without any difficulty, to the crown, to take his title into the market place and to burn it in a bonfire.

This feature of the production for a big audience will appeal to all classes of picture audiences who desire the more classical stories and to those who appreciate the scientific improvement of the silent drama.

A man took two rats, a male and a female, and paired them together. He wanted to study their propagation. That was in December. In September, nine months afterwards he had 380 rats.

Nimrods' Pleased
Ban Is Lifted

Local hunters will be tickled over the action of the legislature in lifting the ban on prairie-chicken shooting for month of November, 1918. At the last session of the legislature it will be remembered, the clause was passed for two years. However, it was passed for two years, the great increase in the number of chicken last season, sportsmen should be given a chance at them for a month next fall.

Last year was particularly dry during May, June and July, and resulted in a very fine breeding season for chicken. Those who did any duck shooting in the chicken districts will attest this fact. By next fall the numbers ought to be greatly increased, and the lifting of the ban will help keep down the I.C.C. of L. provided ammunition doesn't soar too high during the summer.

Canadian Flax
For Aeroplane

Work has been received at Ottawa that Col. Wayland, of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces has been requested by the War Office to immediately proceed to Canada to supervise the distribution of fibre flax seed which it is anticipated will be urgently required in order to supply manufacturing needs for aerial planes in the near future.

As the importance of these supplies cannot be exaggerated, it is exceedingly desirable that there shall be cordial co-operation between the farmers who will supply this special flax seed and Col. Wayland who will distribute the seed to be sown. Col. Wayland has been empowered to offer suitable terms to farmers sowing this seed. He is proceeding to Canada at an early date and in the meantime inquiries may be addressed to him, care of Grain Exchange, Winnipeg.

Order-In-Council Passed Suggesting Abolishing Titles

Ottawa, April 9.—Parliament got a surprise when, during the debate on W. F. Nichols' motion in respect to hereditary titles, Sir Robert Borden produced an order-in-council already passed by the government and containing most radical recommendations to the imperial authorities. They are four in number, as follows:

1. No honor or title distinction, save those granted in recognition of military service during the present war or ordinarily bestowed by the sovereign, propriety motto shall be conferred upon a subject of his majesty ordinarily resident in Canada except with the approval of the prime minister of Canada.

2. The government of the United Kingdom shall exercise the same authority as heretofore in determining the character and number of titles or honors to be allocated to Canada from time to time.

3. No hereditary title or honor shall hereafter be conferred upon a subject of his majesty ordinarily resident in Canada.

4. Approximate action shall be taken, whether by legislation or otherwise, to provide that after a prescribed period no title of honor held by a subject of his majesty now or hereafter ordinarily resident in Canada shall be recognized as having hereditary character.

Sir Robert expressed the belief that it would be done with difficulty, and that the other recommendations made would be considered when the Canadian ministers are in London this summer, in view of his announcement, Sir Robert suggested that Mr. Nickle should withdraw his motion which asked that his majesty be presented with an address praying that hereafter no hereditary titles be conferred in Canada.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed himself as being opposed to the whole system of titles. He said that to explain why he had accepted a title would be going into a matter of history, but if he did, it could be done without any difficulty, to the crown, to take his title into the market place and to burn it in a bonfire.

Nearly all the active workers in Great Britain, France and Italy have been taken from the farms to fight. Their farms have produced less and less for three seasons. What wonder that there is a disturbing, distressing shortage of food.

Divide Parliament Grounds Into Fifty Gardening Plots

The latest in the way of a greater production is to the credit of the provincial public works department. It has been decided to turn some of the unused land on the parliament grounds to useful account by making it into gardens, with government employees for gardeners. A strip of ground lying below the driveway on the south side of the main building will be divided into some fifty plots and allocated free of charge, to the civil servants, whose applications are now being received. Each plot will be about fifty feet square, and there will be room for some 2000 square feet of garden space for intensive farming system. The gardeners to whom the lots are assigned will be allowed to make their own plans as to crops and methods, and they will be expected to keep their little farms in order through the season, including hoeing and cultivating as required.

A good deal of work was done last year on the parliament grounds in the way of grading the south hillside and sealing it down to lawn. The portion below the road at the brow of the bank was plowed, but not graded, and is therefore in condition for gardening during the present season. The soil is said to be of a good and wello-kid kind, and it is expected that the offer of the department will be taken advantage of by a large number of government employees, if indeed there is not a rush for a place on the list. It is not intended to disturb the portion of the grounds that has already been seeded down.

To Tell the Age Of Any Horse

To tell the age of any horse, insert the lower jaw, of course. The six fore teeth the tail will tell. And every four and eight dispel. Two middle "nippers" you behold before the colt is two weeks old. Before eight weeks two more will come. Eight months the corners eat the gum. The outside grooves will disappear. From middle two in just one year. In two years from the second pair, The six "corners" are bare, too. At three, the middle "nippers" drop. At three, the second pair can't stop; When four years old the third pair goes; At five a full new set he shows. And when the old ones fall from view, The second pair at just one year; At six years from the middle two; The second pair at seven years; At eight each spot the "corners" clear, From the middle "nippers" upper jaw. At nine, the black spots will withdraw; At ten, the black spots are bare; At eleven, finds the "corners" light. As time goes on the horses know That oval teeth three-sided grow; They longer get, project before; Till twenty, when we know no more.

The gardening spirit finds expression in verse, too, and a railway man down in Nova Scotia has made an effort in that direction that will perhaps bear quoting. Whether or not it ranks with the really stirring patriotic poems of war days, it is at least sensible:

Get your hoe, get your hoe, get your hoe, Make your garden grow, make it grow, Plant your seeds from sea to sea; Let them work for liberty, Hurry right away, don't delay, start to-day, To the land with a right willing hand, So we'll help defeat the Hun, Now we've got him on the run, Over there, over there, Send The food, send the food, over there, For our brave boys need it, Our brave boys need it, The calls are coming everywhere, So observe and preserve, Save the food, save the food, and con-serve, So we'll help win the cause of freedom And we'll plant, save and send, till it's over, over there.

All Must Work
Or Go To Jail

Illness in Canada is now punishable by penalty. An order-in-council enacts that all persons domiciled in Canada shall, in the absence of reasonable cause, engage in useful occupations.

The regulation provides:

(1) That every male person residing in the Dominion shall be regularly engaged in some useful occupation.

(2) In any proceeding hereunder it shall be a defense that the person is

(a) Under 16 years or over 60 years of age.

(b) A bona-fide student proceeding with his training for some useful occupation.

(c) A bona-fide student at some recognized educational institution.

(d) Regularly employed in some useful occupation and temporarily unemployed owing to differences with his employer.

(e) Physically unable to comply with the provisions of the law.

(f) Unable to obtain within reasonable distance any kind of employment which he is adapted to perform at current wages for similar employment.

Violation of the regulations impose liability to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars or not exceeding six months in jail.

Bob Edwards
Gives Advice

In the last issue of the Calgary Eye Opener, Bob Edwards hands out some very good advice to motorists. He says:

"You should have such control of your engine that no one can force an accident upon you."

"You ought to be able to run your car safely through a street full of blind, deaf, dumb and intoxicated men."

"Remember when you have crushed a playing child to death it will be no excuse to your conscience to say 'she deliberately ran right under my car.' You have no right to allow a child to run under your car."

"In a Mitchell, remember that the person on foot has the right-of-way."

If people on the prairie would quit growling about the winds and the rains and the snows, and spend the same amount of time moving their belongings this way and establishing homes in the Crows' Nest Pass, their days might be lengthened in the land which the Lord their God gave them.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Smith are taking up residence on State Street.

Fathers J. J. Shea, of Calgary, Ryding, of Macleod, and Dargan, of Cartairs, were the guests of Father Bujalski, at Coleman during the week.

Ontario will plant 3,000,000 acres more in cereals and cultivated crops this spring; Quebec, 600,000 and the Maritime Provinces, 400,000 acres extra. The farmers in Eastern Canada are called upon to plant five acres per farm extra; 300,000 farmers in Eastern Canada can save the situation.

Our Allies Must Be Fed

DESPITE war conditions, we have not as yet felt the pinch of hunger in Canada. Consequently, it is difficult for us to realize the grave need for increased food production in order that others may be fed. At no time is Europe self-supporting in the matter of food. After nearly four years of war, our Allies are living from hand to mouth, depending entirely on the safe arrival of food ships from across the Atlantic. Because of our comparative nearness to our Allies, and because of our wide, fertile areas, this continent must continue to feed Europe. If we fail, hundreds of thousands of people may starve, and our armies be denied a conclusive victory.

A bumper crop, a record harvest and increased meat production in Canada will be worth the winning of many battles to the Empire and our Allies at this critical period.

Increased Production Imperative

Canada must raise for export at least 250,000,000 bushels of wheat more in 1918 than in 1917, to enable the Allies to maintain even their present restricted rations.

They shall NOT starve! — make that your slogan.

Plans have been formulated which, on the authority of The Director of Agricultural Labor, positively ensure that labor will be provided when needed, to harvest the maximum crop. Authorities agree that the world-wide shortage of food will continue for years after the war. The farmer is assured a ready and profitable market for all the grain and meat that he can produce.

The Empire depends on the Canadian Farmer to "carry on."

CANADA FOOD BOARD

The Ford is Now Considered a Necessity for Large-Scale Farming

WHETHER you are doing work on a large scale, or a small scale, you endeavor to reduce the delays of your farm machinery to a minimum and save time. A Ford will assist you in doing these two things.

If your tractor runs short of gasoline, the Ford will bring a few cans right to the spot and greatly shorten the delay. Or if you need a repair, or some new plow points, you can "run" the errand to town and back in one-third the time it would take with a horse and rig.

With a Ford you can supervise the work on your ranch much more thoroughly. You can get your mail and supplies often, and take more enjoyment out of prairie life. A Ford will do all these things and many more, and at the same time save you money.

The strength and endurance of the Ford has been proved the world over. It is equal to the western roads and the distances.

At a local organization meeting in connection with the Military Y.M.C.A., held on Monday night the Rev. H. Peters was delegated to attend the Conference at Calgary on Thursday of this week, and left for the north on Wednesday night. Bellevue is taking up the campaign in real earnest and we can look forward to a good report after the three rally days in May.

Coleman Happenings

Dr. Olivier motored to Calgary this week.

Rev. H. Clay was a visitor to Coleman this week.

Mrs. Sweet was a Lethbridge visitor over the week end.

Gardening seems to be the order of the day here. Here's hoping they will have good results.

Harry Leary was met at the station by a large number of town people on Wednesday morning.

H. C. McBurney, C. Gower, A. M. Morrison and T. W. Davies, all motored to Macleod on Wednesday.

Private H. Leary, who enlisted with the 192nd battalion, returned to Coleman on Wednesday last. He has lost a leg in France. His father resides in Coleman.

Miss Everly, one of the school teachers, left here on Tuesday night for her home in Calgary, where we understand she has taken a school. Miss McKenzie, of Saskatchewan, succeeds Miss Everly.

Lieut. Harry W. Clark, of the Imperial Flying Corps, left on Monday night last for overseas service. He was accorded a hearty send off, being very popular in Coleman, his parents having resided there for a number of years.

In spite of the high cost of living, there are a great many going in for automobiles, and the streets and adjacent roads of Coleman are pretty well crowded. Since the advent of the auto, there are not so many dogs to be seen around. "Nuff sed."

The following telegram from Ottawa to Mrs. M. Brennan, dated April 6th, is self-explanatory: "Sincerely regret to inform you 896023, Private Louis Campbell Brennan, Infantry, officially reported dangerously wounded and at sixth casualty clearing station on April 1st." A later message stated wound to be gun-shot wound in wrist and abdomen. Louis Brennan, before enlisting, worked in the law office of Mr. Gillis at Blairmore.

At a meeting of the board of managers of the Frank Community Hall, held on Tuesday evening, it was decided to grant Rev. W. T. Young a brief holiday, commencing early in June.

Fred Patton has arrived in Frank, where we understand he will assume his old job as yard master.

Complaints are being made of autos running at night without the tail light, which is contrary to law.

Rev. D. K. Allan and Mr. Alex. Cameron were down from Coleman to take in the sights on Wednesday afternoon.

The Canada Food Board has arranged with the United States Food Administration to allow 1,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine to come into Canada per month.

Anniversary services will be held in the Institutional church, Coleman, Sunday, May 6th. Rev. W. F. Burns, M.A., of Lethbridge, will be the speaker both morning and evening. Special music is being arranged and it is hoped the event will be marked by the usual large attendance.

The Providence Journal has investigated the causes leading to the inability of the United States to supply airships and munitions of war according to schedule and everywhere from lumber camps to the airplane factory was found the dirty trail of the Hun, who had held up delivery by various underhand methods.

Under the auspices of the Canada Food Board, 25,000 Canadian boys from 15 to 19 years of age, were called to help out this summer on the farm. To date, 28,000 responded in Ontario and the Western provinces alone. Quebec and the Maritime Provinces hold their enrollment later.

Rev. Mr. Wood, of Olds, addressed a meeting at Central Union church on Tuesday evening on the subject of the war and orphans. The lecture was illustrated by a series of lantern slides. The lecture was repeated in the Frank Community Hall on Wednesday night.

Now is the time for organization. There will be a greater need for production in cities, towns and villages this summer than ever before. Plan what you will do with the back yard or vacant lot now, so that when the season begins in a few weeks hence, you will know what to do and will lose no precious time about it. Once the garden season starts it starts with a rush. There is no shortage of vegetable seeds except parsnips. Wholesale dealers have plenty of seeds in stock.

W. Duncan has returned to Frank, after spending the winter at Vancouver and other coast points. We learn that Mr. Duncan has sustained the loss of his father, who died at the coast very recently, and that his brother, Thomas, formerly proprietor of the old Passmore hotel, has just come out of a Vancouver hospital where he underwent a very critical operation and is progressing favorably. Owing to illness, Thomas had to resign his post as provincial police at Bull River.

At the Sunday morning service at Central Union church, the Rev. J. Fulton announced that he had tendered his resignation to the secretary of the Macleod Presbyterian, same to take effect at the end of the present month, and that he might be leaving at any time prior to that date. During Mr. Fulton's time as pastor of Central Union church he has proven himself to be an able preacher, and the congregation as a whole regret very much that he has seen fit to resign. We understand that he has accepted a call to a Presbyterian pastorate in or near the city of Toronto.

Speeding Up at Panama

The operation of the Panama canal has been speeded up so that vessels are now passing through it in a trifle more than four hours, a reduction of more than 20 per cent within the last two years. Only a decade or two ago, big windjambers were sometimes four weeks in doubling Cape Horn, while steamships usually took 10 days. Moreover, the canal took a similar period in running around the South American continent. Surely the narrow thread of water raised above the oceans is fulfilling expectations. MRS. MERCREDI

She Had Been Ill Two Years and Could Find No Cure. That's Why Her Husband Is Enthusiastic Over Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Fort Smith, Alberta, (Special)—Among all the thousands of Canadians who praise Dodd's Kidney Pills the most have done the most there is no more fervent admirer of the great kidney remedy than Isidore Mercredi, of this place. "Yes, it always gives me pleasure to see the results of Dodd's Kidney Pills," Mr. Mercredi says. "My wife was sick for two years. We could not find anything to restore her health. We then found a pamphlet telling of several persons who had been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills."

His wife used just two boxes of them and she is perfectly well, to the great surprise of all our neighbors. They can tell you the same thing. I cannot recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest of all remedies for weak, suffering women. They cure the kidneys. The kidneys are the root of all teeth of weak men. Moreover, cured kidneys mean pure clear blood all over the body. That means good health everywhere.

To Promote Mixed Farming

Alberta's Boost of Mixed Farms Is the "Cow Bill"

One of the most useful pieces of legislation recently enacted by the Alberta legislature, at the initiative of Mr. Leo J. Mercredi, minister of agriculture, is what is known as "The Cow Bill." The object of the measure is to promote mixed farming on Alberta homesteads. Under the terms of the bill, a man can homestead in a group, by signing joint and several notes for $500 each, can obtain the endorsement of the provincial bank for the face value of the notes at a local bank for the purchase of cows and heifers. The province has as its securities items of the same interest, and are to be repaid in full in five years. The animals must pass inspection of an officer of the department of agriculture.

"The measure has already been largely taken advantage of," said Mr. Marshall, "some $560,000 having already been borrowed under its provisions. The main idea of the proposal are that men who would not otherwise have found this possible have been put in a position to start once and practice mixed farming, and by the time the loans are to the increase of their herds many times as much as the amount originally purchased have been secured at stockyards from which, but for this Cow Bill, they would have gone either to market or export. It is a real measure of conservation."

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia

The First Written Message

First Voiceless Message Delivered
Pulses East African Native

"When the missionaries first came to Inhambane," writes Dr. E. H. Richards, for many years missionary to that section of Portuguese East Africa, "the native tribes were so savage, so untaught, that they could be transmitted except by speech or the tom-tom. On the second day after his arrival the missionary teacher made a note to the teacher of words he took a board, in the absence of paper, and wrote 'God' on the board. Then he explained to the bewildered child that if he presented his 'card' to the woman teacher she would give him the same card back. The boy did off delicately, carrying the 'card' at arm's length lest some of the 'medicine' should fall off, and delivered it to the teacher. I am glad now that I did for after using eight boxes they have so strengthened and built up my nervous nerves," says Dr. Williams. "I can work with pleasure and feel refreshed after a night's sleep. I sincerely hope some similar sufferer may benefit by this."

If you are weak, nervous or feeling "out of sorts," give Dr. Williams'

Pink Liniment a trial, and you will be surprised to see how quickly the nervousness will pass away and your former energy return. You can get these trials through your medicine dealer, or at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Woe to the Conquered

If anyone was under illusion about the temper of Germany, that illusion was dispelled by the peace terms imposed on her. If anyone supposed that there was hope in the liberal movement in the central powers, that supposition is now shown to be a delusion. The German terms of ruthless conquest, Germany's motto is the motto of the pagan world, "Woe to the conqueror." The only way to defend her is to defeat Germany in her chosen field and with her own weapons. There is no use pleading with a savage dog!—Kansas City Times.

WEAK, NERVOUS PEOPLE

Such Sufferers Can Be Restored by Building Up the Blood

Nervous people who have not yet developed a disease that can be recognized and treated by the medical profession, but who are continually in need of relief. Irritation, headaches, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, all these discomforts make life miserable. They bring no pain, but run a doctor's bill without hope of an improved condition.

Every sufferer should know the danger of such a condition to the nervous system. Nervous debility and even paralysis may result if the tonic of the nerves is not restored.

The one thing that brings hope and relief is that these can be restored by building up the blood. It cannot be too often repeated that the strength of the body is in the blood.

It is the strength of the blood that gives these pills a trial is almost certain to see good results; and what is more, the benefit will be permanent.

Prussia Epitomized

The Fundamental Difference Between Anglo-Saxon and Prussian

Probably the briefest and wisest appreciation of German psychology in its relation to the war situation has been spoken. It was written by those of George Archibald, an American jockey, who has just got away from Austria. The Philadelphian, led out by the German, is the heading "Prussia Epitomized." The lad's comment was as follows:

"Don't let this German peace talk fool you too much. Just give them a wide berth and let them go on annexing New York and Chicago. On the other hand, if they pull an offensive just give 'em another dose of that Venetian stuff and they'll be eating out of your hand."

This pithy and profound analysis, the Ledger points out, emphasizes the fact that "more sense" and high power of reason when applied to the same thing; that the genius of wisdom is the apothecary of common sense.

Young Mr. Archibald, in his own words, has and in his own words, has grasped the fundamental difference between Anglo-Saxon and Prussian. The latter is the exponent of might, might, might. He depends on force and frightfulness. He yields to fear rather than to reason. And the lesson is, as the Ledger puts it, to "teach to the world all the military, the economic, the moral, and the intellectual weapons in our lands."—Toronto Globe.

To Curb Enemy Ambitions

Germany Must Give Up Designs on Russia

Germany must be compelled to withdraw from the Russian provinces she has gained. That is an aim of the Allies which she cannot now promptly proclaim, if in a purpose they must inflexibly adhere to. It is not alone, the rescue of Russia that is involved, but is the safety of civilization. The clearest object of Germany is demanded by every consideration of international interest and safety, the permanence of the world's peace after the war. By her conquest of Russia, for undeniably it is conquest, though secured by the greatest means and most terrible methods, she has attacked at its root, building up the blood restores the nerve force. That is why people who occasionally take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills always feel strong again.

Wm. McIntyre, Gananoque, Ont., says: "For a number of years I was always tired and listless. I would tremble and shiver, make my heart flutter, and I would feel as though I were choking. I was always wholly unwell for hours and days, and nervous. Life was almost a burden. I tried several medicines, but none of them would help me in the least. One day I received a prescription from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a trial. I am glad now that I did for after using eight boxes they have so strengthened and built up my nervous nerves," says Dr. Williams.

Pink Liniment a trial, and you will be surprised to see how quickly the nervousness will pass away and your former energy return. You can get these trials through your medicine dealer, or at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Coleman Institutional church, will occupy the pulpit of Central Union church on Sunday next, and as interim moderator of the Macleod Presbyterian, will declare the pulpit vacant.

We haven't yet run across a Colemanite who hasn't been "stung" by a certain so-called journalist.
We think that if all those who were victimized by that individual were to form themselves into an association, it would have the largest membership of any organization in Southern Alberta.

Miss Vera Brown, formerly a nursing sister at the Frank Military Hospital, and who has since been connected with one of the military hospitals at Calgary, was down on Sunday last to bid fare-

Miss Brown leaves in a few days for overseas.

We understand that local capital is being interested in sheep raising in this district, and a new industry as far as the "Crown" Nest Pass is concerned will be set on foot this year. The grazing adaptability of the country adjacent to the "Crown" Pass only became known a year or two ago, after sheep ranchers were away out on the prairie had benefited greatly from their experiments.

The following articles were shipped on Wednesday by the local Councillor Rose is feeling anything but well this week. Of late he has had more troubles than enough in Molardom, and Doc Lillie was commissioned to use the "pinchers" yesterday. Molars were extracted in rapid succession, until one very "sensitive" tooth was approached. This tooth still maintained its commanding position, although the allied lines have been captured. Mike says the doctor's "forces" put up some fight. Mike is now in a position to seek an armistice.

card fastened to his horse's neck, worded "License Applied For."

A deputation from Rome states that the Pope has lodged a protest with Berlin against the bombardment of Paris, and especially the destruction of churches and wholesale massacre of people.

Four years ago there were wars and rumors of wars. Now there are weddings and rumors of weddings, but we are holding back announcements to make a "lump-sum" of them after June the 22nd.

Last week we thought to put one over the liquor act officials by filling our hot-water tank with white-key; but a woman came in a few minutes afterwards to scrub the floor, and naturally used all the "water" from the tank. Then the sun came out and added to our troubles and we have been suffering from drought ever since.

By unanimous consent of the
